

Vehicle Attachment Policies:

Contact DDyatra: Reach out to DDyatra Tours and Travels via email, phone, or their website contact form to express your interest in becoming a partner.

Provide Information: Be prepared to provide detailed information about your company and your fleet of vehicles. This may include the types of cars you offer, their condition, registration details, insurance coverage, and any other relevant documentation.

Discuss Terms: Once DDyatra reviews your information, they may reach out to discuss partnership terms, including commission rates, service agreements, and any requirements or standards they have for their partners.

Sign Agreement: If both parties agree to move forward, you'll likely need to sign a partnership agreement outlining the terms and conditions of your partnership with DDyatra.

Integration: Depending on DDyatra's systems and processes, you may need to integrate your booking and scheduling systems with theirs to streamline the reservation process.

Training and Onboarding: DDyatra may provide training or onboarding materials to ensure that you understand their service standards and expectations.

Launch: Once everything is in place, you'll officially become an attachment with DDyatra Tours and Travels, and you can start providing cars for their services.

Remember that the specific steps and requirements may vary depending on DDyatra's policies and procedures, so it's essential to communicate directly with them to understand their process fully